Prelude

Welcome

Chalice Lighting: “The Struggle For Freedom”

We light this chalice in memory of the courage of those who have struggled for freedom. The persistence of those who’ve struggled for justice, and the love of those who’ve built beloved communities to carry on the light of hope.

Singing songs of Peace, Liberty and Justice

Opening Words: “On a Winter Morning”

It is a good morning to be together!

When winter's darkness spreads across the land, and cold seeps through our thickest coats, we hurry here, drawn by the warmth of faces familiar and new, to the welcoming walls of this house.

Here, for this hour, we open ourselves to new understanding, reassurance, and hope, for this is a place where truth, love, and challenge meet.

Joys and Concerns

Offertory

Covenant: #475 We, The Peoples of the United Nations

Hymn: #162 Gonna Lay Down My Sword and Shield

Closing Words: “Let us go forth into the world”

Let us go forth into the world through a door of hope for the future, remembering these words by Martin Luther: "Even if I knew that tomorrow the world would go to pieces, I would still plant my apple tree." So may it be with us.

Marjorie Newlin Leaming

Extinguishing the Chalice: #456

We extinguish this flame but not the light of truth, the warmth of community, or the fire of commitment. These we carry in our hearts until we are together again.

Elizabeth Selle Jones
