Of what may I speak but friendship,
And of our human wish for love – not just for me
But for friends too, and those who are not my friends;
So if you ask me, now, at this moment,
What is my wish: it is for love over Scotland,
Like tears of rain – that is enough.
– Alexander McCall Smith “44 Scotland Street”

Prelude

Welcome

Opening Words:

When ‘I’ and ‘You’ are absent
I’ve no idea if this is a mosque,
synagogue, church, or temple
- Mahmud Shabistari

Announcements

Chalice Lighting:

There is only One Light, and ‘you’ and ‘me’
are holes in the lampshade.
- Mahmud Shabistari

Opening Hymn: Taize #1049 Vieni Spirito Creatore

Joys and Concerns

Offertory

Reading:

Here in this place,
Of angled streets and northern light,
Under this particular moon, with Scotland
Quiet and sleeping behind and around us;

Address: “Spiritual Spaces – Findhorn”

Discussion

Hymn: #118 “This Little Light of Mine”

Closing Words: #681

Deep peace of the running wave to you.
Deep peace of the flowing air to you.
Deep peace of the quiet earth to you.
Deep peace of the shining stars to you.
Deep peace of the infinite peace to you.
– Adapted from Gaelic Runes

Postlude: (Please remain seated for the piano selection)

FRAGRANCE-FREE POLICY

The Unitarian Congregation of Niagara is a fragrance-free zone. Fragrance may be distressful and threaten the well-being of those around you. In order to make this a safe and welcoming environment for everyone who comes here, we ask that you refrain from wearing fragrances. Your understanding and co-operation is appreciated.
